NJTL Reading Rally Summer 2018

“Taking Reading to the Tennis Courts”

“For every hour spent on the playing field, two should be spent with a book.”

– Arthur Ashe - 1943-1993
National Junior Tennis & Learning
Co-founder

Rally: ral-ly (noun) a series of strokes interchanged between players (as in tennis) before a point is won; (verb) to come together again to renew an effort, to join in a common cause

About the Reading Rally Program

- The Reading Rally Program is open to students enrolled in the summer youth tennis program
- Students will keep a log of their reading using the Rally form
- Starting June 4, each time you take time to read at least 10 pages in a book, magazine, newspaper or other printed material, enter the number of pages you read in the log
- To be invited to the Reading Rally, you must have at least 5 entries on the Student Log and turn in the completed form to your tennis instructor on July 12 (due to office July 13)
- Reading is fun and important. Take your time but read often. You never know what you might learn!

Reading Rally Celebration

- Students submitting complete Reading Rally forms by the deadline of July 13 will receive an email invitation to attend the Reading Rally Celebration
- The Reading Rally will be held Friday, July 20, 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. at Memorial Park Tennis Center
 - We will have a book swap at the Rally, so bring books you would be willing to trade
 - Students invited to the Rally will receive certificates

- Be thinking of your favorite book or character to share with others at the Reading Rally
- After the Rally is over, we encourage all students to continue reading
